GINS ALL BUSY.

The gins of Houston are all busy, the Okolona Cotton Oil Co's gin, J. W. Pratt, manager ginned 64 bales Wednesday, breaking the record of number of bales ginned in one day by any gin here.

T. C. Smith has been making some improvements, putting in some new machinery, etc. The manager, Mr. Grissom, informs us that they are better prepared than ever to accommodate the public.

J. E. Dendy & Son are still on the job, these people and their gin are too well-known for us to comment on. they are ginning all the cotton that they can handle and are giving entire satisfaction as they always have. This gin is one of the oldest industries in Houston, having come to Houston years ago, putting up a first-class gin and the public have always shown their appreciation of J. E. Dendy & Son gin by continuing to patronize them year after year.

PETITION FOR PARDON

Honorable Earl Brewer, Governor, Jackson, Miss.

We, the undersigned citizens of the First District of Chickasaw County, most respectfully petition and urge your Excellency to grant a pardon to Jim Porter, negro, now serving a life sentence for the murder of Rosa Brown, a negro. We are satisfied that the negro has been amply punished for his crime. He was convicted at the October Term, 1912, of the Circuit Court of Chickasaw County. There was only one person that claimed to have been an eye witness to the killing and that was "deceased" mother. Jim has always been considered a good hardworking negro, and we understand has made a model prisoner. And for other reasons to be given on the hearing of this petition.

Respectfully submitted,

S. E. Atkinson,
Walter Alexander,
Joe B. Paulk,
Harden Davis,
and others.

To the Cotton Growers

Friends: We are again ready to gin your cotton and hereby respectfully solicit the same liberal patronage you have here-to-fore given us, and we promise a renewed and continued effort to please you in our work.

Thanking you for all favors both past and future, we are

Yours for mutual benefit,

J. E. Dendy & Son,
Ginners and Millers,
Houston, Miss.
